Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

Reference is made to the following document:

D1: PURNHAGEN H.: "An overview of MPEG-4 audio version 2" AES 17TH
INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON HIGH QUALITY AUDIO CODING, 2
September 1999 (1999-09-02), - 5 September 1999 (1999-09-05) XP002239258
Italy

The document D1 is regarded as being the closest prior art to the subject-matter of claims 1, 13, and shows (section 2.5 Environmental spatialisation) the possibility to integrate in the MPEG 4 encoding scheme descriptors of an audio scene, in particular the position of sound sources in a room and the acoustic properties of this room.

The subject-matter of claims 1, 13 differs from this known modelisation in that the application allows to represent the shape of a sound source which is no longer a simple point such as represented in D1.

The subject-matter of claims 1, 13 is therefore new (Article 33(2) PCT).

The problem to be solved by the present invention may be regarded as how to integrate the shape of a sound source in an audio coding scheme.

The solution to this problem proposed in claims 1, 13 of the present application is considered as involving an inventive step (Article 33(3) PCT) since not disclosed nor directly derivable from the available prior art. The only available published documents from the prior art dealing with this particular problem (see the search report) are posterior to the priority date of the application.

Claims 2-12 are dependent on claim 1 and as such also meet the requirements of the PCT with respect to novelty and inventive step.
